ARTICLE IV

- (b) Every member of the Board of Directors shall have one (1) vote on all matters to be decided by the Board. Unless otherwise stated in these Bylaws or as required by applicable law, the affirmative vote of a majority of Directors present and voting shall constitute Board action. Proxy voting is not permitted.

Section 2. Number, Tenure, and Qualifications.

- (a) Number. The Board of Directors shall consist of at least five (5) and no more than eleven (11) members.

A person elected or appointed to hold office as a director does not automatically assume the duties of that office. Qualification for an incoming director requires that the person complete the training requirements described in subdivision 7, as amended, and the training policy under the heading "Prerequisites to Assuming the Duties of the Office of a Director." To continue as a director, a person must comply with the initial and annual training requirements described in subdivision 7, as amended, and the training policy under the headings "Initial Training (First Year on the Board)" and "Annual Training". When publicizing the special board meeting, the Board shall also invite the school community to submit written comments to the Board prior to the special board meeting.
 - (iii) Board Meeting. The Board shall place on the agenda of its regular meeting following the special board meeting consideration of changing the governance structure. Placing the item on the agenda does not require any board member to introduce a motion or second a motion for such consideration.
 - (iv) Effective Date of Change in Governance Structure. Any change in the governance structure complying with this Section 3 is not effective for the duration of the current charter contract period and will be effective for the subsequent charter contract period and begin on the same date as the effective date of the charter contract next executed between the school and its authorizer.

Section 4. Nomination Process. Section 6. Resignation and Removal. Directors may resign at any time, effective immediately or at a specified later date, by giving written notice to the Board Chair or the Secretary of the Corporation. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. If no time is specified, the resignation shall be effective at the time of its receipt by the Chair or Secretary. A director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all remaining directors of the Corporation. Failure to attend four (4) consecutive meetings or two (2) quarterly meetings shall constitute cause.

Section 7. Filling Vacancies. Vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled by appointment of a new director by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even if less than a quorum. The remaining directors shall give consideration to appointing a new director based on the most recent board election, subject to the membership category being filled. No committee shall have the authority to act on behalf of the Board of Directors unless such authority is specifically delegated to the committee by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that no committee shall be granted any powers or authority exceeding that granted to the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise stated in the resolutions creating it, or in these Bylaws, committee actions shall be taken only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the committee. Failure of a committee to reach an agreement upon any issue before it shall require referral of such issue to the entire Board of Directors. Each committee shall be under the direction and control of the Board and shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings, and all actions of each committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors and shall be subject to revision and alteration by the Board of Directors. Each committee shall meet as provided by its rules or by resolution of the Board of Directors. Notice of all meetings of any committee shall be given to all members of that committee as determined by the committee.
